DETAILED ACTION

Status of Application, Amendments and/or Claims

The amendment of 23 September 2005 has been entered in full. Claims 3-6 and 9 are amended.

Claims 1-9 are pending in the instant application.

Election/Restrictions

1. This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

The species of agonist are as follows:

- a. eotaxin
- b. eotaxin-2
- c. eotaxin-3
- d. HCC-1
- e. HCC-2
- f. MIP-1 $\alpha$
- g. RANTES
- h. MCP-2
- i. MCP-3
- j. MCP-4
- k. 2-[(6-amino-2-benzothiazolyl)thio]-N-[1-(3,4-dichlorophenyl)methyl]-4-piperidinyl]acetamide

l. MIP-3 $\alpha$

m. MIP-1 $\beta$

n. LAG-1

o. TARC

p. vMIP-I

q. I309

Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

2. The claims are deemed to correspond to the species listed above in the following manner:

The following claim(s) are generic: 1.

3. The species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the species lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons:

The special technical feature of (a) is eotaxin. This special technical feature is not shared by the other species because eotaxin is structurally and functionally diverse from the agonist molecules listed in claim 1. Each species requires separate, non-coextensive searches.

5. This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

The species of diseases/disorders/tissues requiring treatment are as follows:

- r. leukemias
- s. lymphoproliferative disorders
- t. aplastic anemia
- u. congenital disorders of the bone marrow
- v. solid tumors
- w. autoimmune disorders
- x. inflammatory diseases
- y. primary immunodeficiencies
- z. primary systemic amyloidosis
- aa. systemic sclerosis
- bb. heart diseases
- cc. liver diseases
- dd. neurodegenerative diseases
- ee. multiple sclerosis
- ff. M. Parkinson
- gg. stroke
- hh. spinal cord injury

- ii. diabetes mellitus
- jj. bone diseases
- kk. skin diseases
- ll. replacement therapy of the skin
- mm. retina or cornea
- nn. congenital disorders
- oo. vessel diseases (atherosclerosis or cardiovascular disease)

Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

4. The claims are deemed to correspond to the species listed above in the following manner:

The following claim(s) are generic: 1.

5. The species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the species lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons:

Art Unit: 1647

The special technical feature of (r) is leukemia. This special technical feature is not shared by the other species because leukemia has a pathophysiology that is diverse from the other diseases/disorders/tissues listed in claim 1. Each of the diseases/disorders/tissues listed consists of a non-overlapping patient population. Each species requires separate, non-coextensive searches.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
